2. VIEW AMERICA'S FOUNDING DOCUMENTS AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The National Archives is home to more than three billion documents, including the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights, displayed in the building's Rotunda for the Charters of Freedom. You can also view an exhibit on the Vietnam War in the Lawrence F. O'Brien Gallery.

3. TAKE IN A FREE PERFORMANCE AT THE KENNEDY CENTER'S MILLENNIUM STAGE

The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts hosts free concerts from a range of artists on its Millennium Stage at 6 p.m. daily. One night, you may see a dance company; the next, an avant-rock trio or a Dixieland jazz band. The historic venue also offers free guided tours.

Smithsonian's National Zoo

4. EXPERIENCE THE SMITHSONIAN'S NATIONAL ZOO

With more than 1,500 animals across 300 species, you can spend an entire day exploring the National Zoo. Don't miss young panda Bei Bei, grazing American bison and an animal-filled carousel that kids will adore.

5. ENJOY A MOVIE OUTDOORS IN ONE OF DC'S NEIGHBORHOODS

Georgetown, Chinatown, NoMa, Capitol Riverfront and Golden Triangle are among the neighborhoods that host free screenings of classic films outdoors in the summer. Take in the beautiful scenery under the stars while enjoying family-oriented flicks.

6. SAVOR ON-THE-WATER REVELRY AT THE WHARF

The Wharf's Recreation Pier features beautiful views of the Washington Channel and swing sets that the whole family can enjoy. The Floating Barge at Transit Pier and the District Pier often offer free music performances. You can also ride a free jitney over to the gorgeous East Potomac Park, where you can play mini-golf ($7) or picnic.

The Wharf, Recreation Pier

7. SPEND AN AFTERNOON INSIDE THE RENWICK GALLERY

Contemporary craft and decorative art take center stage at the Renwick Gallery, just steps away from the White House. Check out No Spectators: The Art of Burning Man (March 30–Sept. 16), which will highlight the culture of the annual event with large installations.

THE DISTRICT IN BLOOM

The National Cherry Blossom Festival, international flair and the city's most exciting new development will make this spring one to remember in the nation's capital.

FESTIVAL FUN

The National Cherry Blossom Festival (March 20–April 15) is DC's signature spring celebration. The average peak bloom date is April 4, but check online for the latest prediction.

Highlights include the Opening Ceremony (March 24), featuring Japanese-themed performances inside the Warner Theatre.

The Washington Monument grounds play host to the Blossom Kite Festival on March 31, and on April 7, Petalpalooza will have family fun and light up The Wharf with fireworks.

The National Cherry Blossom Festival presented by Events DC on April 14 is a celebratory jaunt down Constitution Avenue with floats, marching bands and celebrity performers.

INTERNATIONAL ADVENTURES

Passport DC (May 1-31), curated by Cultural Tourism DC, offers two chances to explore DC's international embassies for free. The Around the World Embassy Tour (May 5) showcases Asian, Middle Eastern and South American countries, while European nations open their doors during the European Union Open House (May 12).

Tidal Basin

The Phillips Collection is America's first museum of modern art, but its offerings are international. View the legendary Luncheon of the Boating Party by French master Pierre-Auguste Renoir and masterpieces from Vincent Van Gogh and Pablo Picasso, among many others. The National Gallery of Art also features noteworthy paintings and sculptures from around the world, including exhibits dedicated to Paul Cézanne (March 25–July 1) and Marine Paintings from the Dutch Golden Age (July 1–Nov. 25).

The District is famous for its international cuisine. After you explore the Museum of the Bible, dine at Chef Todd Gray's Manna, which showcases Israeli street food on the museum's sixth floor. Savor the Indian lamb chops at Rasika West End and indulge in the food of southern Spain and Morocco at Arroz inside the Marriott Marquis Washington, DC.

WHARF LIFE

Fill a spring day with these activities at DC's newest playground.

- Take the free Wharf Jitney to Hains Point in East Potomac Park, where you can view cherry blossom trees along the water's edge.
- Hang out at 7th Street Park, which features walking trails, picnic space and an interactive fountain. You can also marvel at The Torch, a 14-foot gas-powered flame that serves as The Wharf's beacon.

- The Wharf's three hotel options provide wonderful overnight accommodations. Canopy by Hilton Washington DC The Wharf features a rooftop bar, Hyatt House Washington DC/The Wharf has 150 suites equipped with a kitchenette and InterContinental Washington D.C. – The Wharf has 278 elegantly designed guestrooms.

SUMMER IN THE CITY

Lush landscapes, scenic parks and trails, water-themed revelry, holiday happenings, cultural events and an exciting sports scene make DC a fantastic summer destination.

Smithsonian Castle

GLORIOUS GARDENS

Kenilworth Park & Aquatic Gardens

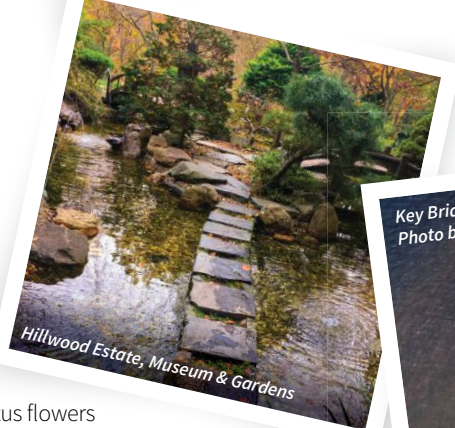

equals paradise for nature lovers, with its famous water lilies and lotus flowers providing picturesque scenery. There's also plenty of space for picnicking. Tour the Hillwood Estate, Museum & Gardens, the former home of Marjorie Merriweather Post. The 25-acre property is ideal for wandering, with fountains and exotic plants throughout.

Take to green paths and rose gardens at Dumbarton Oaks in Georgetown. Nearby, Tudor Place has manicured outdoor spaces that feel like indoor rooms. The Enid A. Haupt Garden is a hidden gem on the National Mall, a 4.2-acre public space adjacent to the Smithsonian Castle.

PRETTY PARKS & TRAILS

With miles of trails and picnic areas, a nature center, a golf course and horse stables, Rock Creek Park is a 2,000-acre oasis that is perfect for outdoor recreation. Great Falls Park is just a 30-minute drive from DC. Its 800 acres of scenic parkland consist of hiking trails, cascading rapids and spectacular waterfalls.

The Anacostia Riverwalk Trail is an outstanding option for bicyclists, as it starts where the Anacostia River meets the Potomac River, winding through beautiful scenery (including Kenilworth Park) into Maryland. The 2.2 miles of trail extending from the U.S. Capitol to the Lincoln Memorial are perfect for running or biking, as you enjoy monuments and memorials along the way.

PLAY ON OR BY THE WATER

Rent a canoe, kayak or stand-up paddleboard from Key Bridge Boathouse in Georgetown to enjoy the Potomac River and breathtaking DC skyline. Continue your Potomac playtime with a water taxi to The Wharf or National Harbor in Maryland, which features waterfront restaurants and shops. Rise 180 feet up on the Capital Wheel and take in spectacular views.

Capitol Riverfront has two great play spaces near the water. The Yards Park, which sits next to the Anacostia River, features an 11-inch basin and dancing fountains that kids love. Canal Park's three acres include an interactive fountain and picnic areas.

Anacostia Riverwalk Trail

OUTDOOR MUSIC

Experience smooth sounds with food and drinks as accompaniments during Jazz in the Garden, held on Friday nights from mid-May through August at the National Gallery of Art's Sculpture Garden. Jazz fans also cherish the DC Jazz Festival (June 8-17), which offers outdoor performances at The Yards Park, among other famous venues.

One of DC's hippest summertime traditions is free live performances by local bands in an alcohol-free, family-friendly environment at Fort Reno in Upper Northwest. Transit Pier at The Wharf features a floating barge where bands perform.

SPRING & SUMMER SPORTS

The Washington Nationals are a must-see from April to September, featuring stars Bryce Harper and Max Scherzer. Nationals Park will also host the MLB All-Star Game on July 17. D.C. United of Major League Soccer play from March to October.

The Washington Mystics, led by superstar Elena Delle Donne, play at Capital One Arena from early May to mid-September. For fans of individual sports, Citi Open brings tennis stars from around the world to Rock Creek Park Tennis Center from July 28 to August 5.

SUMMER HOLIDAYS

MEMORIAL DAY, MAY 28

The National Memorial Day Concert (May 27) is a free holiday tradition featuring celebrity guests and musicians on the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol. The largest Memorial Day parade in the country marches down Constitution Avenue (May 28).

INDEPENDENCE DAY, JULY 4

The free Smithsonian Folklife Festival (June 27–July 1, July 4-8) brings international culture, cuisine and music to the National Mall during this special holiday. The U.S. Capitol hosts A Capitol Fourth, a free event featuring the National Symphony Orchestra and fireworks.

LABOR DAY, SEPTEMBER 3

The National Symphony Orchestra plays patriotic classics on the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol during the free Labor Day Capitol Concert (September 2).

THE CULINARY CAPITAL

With an updated Michelin Guide, DC delivers as a dining destination. Read up on award-winning eateries below.

BIB GOURMAND RESTAURANTS

Ivy City Smokehouse is known for its savory meats and smoked salmon doused in honey. José Andrés' Jaleo has been a DC favorite for over 20 years, serving Spanish paellas and tapas. The restaurateur also offers Peruvian, Chinese and Japanese flavors at China Chilcano and Greek dishes at Zaytinya.

You can taste Afghanistan in the cuisine of Lapis, an Adams Morgan jewel that uses family recipes to perfection. The Red Hen churns out Italian favorites from its woodfire-powered kitchen. Go global at Hazel with delicious medium-sized plates (leave room for zucchini bread).

MICHELIN-STARRED RESTAURANTS

Blue Duck Tavern is home to three dazzling meals per day, each of which can be topped off with its signature apple pie. Chef Eric Ziebold sports two Michelin stars in one building: Kinship gets one upstairs, while Métier and its seven-course menu gets one downstairs.

Coastal Italian cuisine gets its due in a rustic setting at Chef Nicholas Stefanelli's Masseria. Italy also lives in the seafood at Chef Fabio Trabocchi's Fiola. Travel across Europe at Ralf Schlegel's Plume, tucked inside the historic Jefferson Hotel. José Andrés earned two Michelin stars at minibar, where you can explore molecular gastronomy.

MICHELIN GUIDE RANKINGS, DEFINED

BIB GOURMAND

"A restaurant that serves high-quality cuisine at affordable prices"

1 STAR

"A very good restaurant in its category"

2 STARS

"Excellent cuisine, worth a detour"

WATERFRONT DINING

With the addition of The Wharf in the Southwest, DC's on-the-water options have grown. Spain and seafood unite at Del Mar de Fabio Trabocchi. Chef Kwame Onwuachi meshes Caribbean, African and American flavors at Kith and Kin, while Mike Isabella's Requin riffs on French cuisine. Chef Jamie Leeds brings fresh bivalves and more to Hank's Oyster Bar.

At Georgetown's Washington Harbour, savor American fare at Sequoia. Embrace the sea at Tony and Joe's Seafood Place. Capitol Riverfront's Osteria Morini transports northern Italy to the nation's capital, and check out the city's first wine producer, District Winery.

TRAVEL TIPS

& INFO TO KNOW

FLYING

Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA)

10-minute drive to DC

- Accessible on Metrorail's Blue/Yellow lines
- Local Tip: Enjoy Greek-inspired cuisine from Mike Isabella at Kapnos Taverna in terminal C

Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD)

45-minute drive to DC

- The Silver Line Express Bus to Dulles costs $5 and gets you to and from the Metro; the 5A Metrobus travels between Dulles and L'Enfant Plaza
- Fun Nearby: See the Space Shuttle Discovery at the National Air and Space Museum's Udvar-Hazy Center

Baltimore/Washington International Airport (BWI)

45-minute drive to DC

- Shuttles take you to Amtrak and MARC trains bound for DC's Union Station
- Good to Know: Long layover? Ride the BWI bike trails with Zagster bike share

DRIVING

- SuperShuttle travels to the DC area's three airports
- Ride-sharing apps like Uber and Lyft service the DC metro area
- Hail a taxi easily on busy streets or near well-trafficked landmarks (DC taxis are red with a gray stripe); pay with cash or credit card

BIKING

- DC has about 70 miles of bike lanes
- Capital Bikeshare offers 1-day or 3-day passes and has 300+ stations
- Rent a sized bike and a helmet from Bike and Roll, and go on a guided (or self-guided) ride
- Mount Vernon Trail is paved and spans 18 miles; Georgetown's C&O Towpath is unpaved and leads to Cumberland, MD; Rock Creek Trail is centrally located and connects to nearby trails
- Hail a pedicab, weather permitting

METRO RAIL TRAVEL TIPS

- “Metro” not “Subway”
- Don't be an escafeeter: Walk on the left, stand on the right side of the escalators
- Let riders off the train before entering
- If the bell chimes, don't try to board; the doors close firmly and can separate you from your party
- Metro hours: Mon.-Thurs. 5 am–11:30 pm, Fri. 5 am–1 am, Sat. 7 am–1 am, Sun. 8 am–11 pm

- To travel on Metro, you will need a SmarTrip® card, which can be purchased online at wmata.com ahead of your trip. Metrorail One Day Passes are also available.
- Use your SmarTrip card to enter/exit

SILVER LINE UPDATE

- The 23-mile Silver Line Metro extension now connects DC to luxury retail mecca Tysons Corner Center. The extension is expected to reach Dulles International Airport by 2020.
